

Maintenance Council Meetings

Emissions: Bio-Fuel Driven Solution

About the program

Improving engine exhaust emissions is the mandate. Bio-fuel driven solutions may be an answer. CleanFlex Power System has developed a system that allows traditional diesel engines to run on low to high volumes of ethanol. There is on-going real-world testing of this solution being conducted now on an operating commercial vehicle.

About the speaker

Ronald A. Preston
CleanFlex Power Systems, LLC

Reservations required by Thursday, January 28, at 12:00 noon.

Please contact Cyndi Buhr at Nebraska Trucking in Lincoln at 402-476-8504 or cbuhr@nebtrucking.com, and let her know which meeting location you plan to attend.

Payment and cancellations

Pay at the door or request that we bill the company. We must guarantee the number of meals prior to the meetings, so reservations not cancelled by RSVP deadline will be billed. You also have the option to send someone in your place.

Omaha

dinner and program
Monday, February 1, 6:00 p.m.*
Anthony's Restaurant
7220 F Street
$25 per person

Grand Island

dinner and program
Tuesday, February 2, 6:00 p.m.*
Midtown Holiday Inn
2503 S. Locust St.
$25 per person

Meet your friends for cash bar 30 minutes before dinner.*

Maintenance Council meetings are not intended to endorse any product or service. The meetings are for informational purposes to fulfill the goal of the Maintenance Council, which is to help technicians and managers improve their maintenance skills and stay current on changing technologies.