(lunch and learn)

October 11, 2018

About our presenter:

Jeff Arnold, MAM, CAE
Executive Director of NATMI

What is NATMI? The North American Transportation Management Institute. NATMI exists to improve the performance and productivity of the professionals directly responsible for effective fleet and driver performance – risk managers, safety and security directors, maintenance managers, and commercial driver trainers.

NATMI's training and certification programs are outcome-focused and utilize rigorous instructional design standards. "Outcome-focused" means that the process, structure, and content of the programs are focused on the desired outcomes that our professional development programs should bring. For the companies who employ our certification program graduates, these outcomes include:

- reduced accidents and injuries
- lower vehicle maintenance costs
